Philosophy

The guiding philosophy of the Church Leadership Training Institute is that the effective growing church is anchored on committed and knowledgeable church workers. The commitment comes by a purposeful training program. The training program should utilize the best scholarship on education, theory and biblical interpretation. The Institute is dedicated to providing this type of training to church workers.

Purpose and Goal

The Church Leadership Training Institute provides quality training for church workers in hope of causing spiritual and numerical growth in the church. The facilitators/teachers in the Institute are skilled workers with practical experience in using the resources being taught in their own church environment.

Tuition

The Institute is totally supported by the tuition fees it collects from the students. The tuition fee includes the cost of the books required for the course. Unless otherwise noted the fee is $25 per semester. All 9-13 week courses are $40-$150.

Diploma/Certificate

To receive a diploma or certificate in a chosen field:

1. The student must complete all courses listed in the diploma or certificate area
2. Read the book (if the book is not completed by the close of the course, an extension of two weeks may be granted by the teacher of the course; however, you must attend the 9-13 week courses)
3. Attend class sessions
